

Please do not turn a deaf ear to us in the Deaf Community who depend on the videophone to communicate. Our little deaf daughter aged 7 needs VRS to communicate with her hearing grandparents. For some Deafs, the English language is not easy and they find signing more understandable and can have clear communication. Please adopt the necessary regulatory requirements and appropriate rate to ensure quality VRS interpreting service. Thank you. Jan DeLap